

RECTOR AND SEXTON'S WIFE FOUND MURDERED

ARE FOUND SHOT TO DEATH IN SECLUDED LANE IN NEW JERSEY

Had Been Missing Since Thursday Night—New Brunswick Officials Are Mystified by the Mysterious Deaths—Letters Written by Dead Woman Were Found Near Bodies

(By The Associated Press)
NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Sept. 16.—The Rev. Edward W. Hall, rector of the Protestant Episcopal Church of St. John the Evangelist, and Mrs. James Mills, wife of the sexton of the church, were found dead from bullet wounds today under an apple tree in a secluded lane in Somerville township. The two had been missing from their homes since last Thursday night.
Coroner R. M. Long of Somerset county declared it a case of double murder. He said the two had been dead at least 36 hours before the bodies were discovered and was emphatic in stating he believed the shooting did not occur in the rustic lane. No weapon was found near the bodies which were lying about a foot apart. Near the woman's side the exploded shell of a 32 caliber bullet was found.
The woman had been shot once between the eyes. Marks of clinched fingers bruised the left arm. The body of the rector bore three bullet wounds. One was over the left eye and two in the neck. Scattered about the man's body were cards and letters taken from his pockets. Mills gave an account of his wife's movements up to the time she left home on Thursday night.
He is not being held.

PRESIDENT WILL VETO SOLDIER'S BONUS IS REPORT

Will Send Message of Disapproval to the House Tuesday

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—Information that President Harding had made up his mind definitely to veto the soldiers' bonus bill reached senate leaders today from some of his close advisers. They said his message of disapproval would be sent to the house next Tuesday. After receiving this word, the majority leaders made an informal preliminary canvass of the senate which was said to have shown 34 votes against over riding a veto, or two more than the number necessary to prevent final enactment of the bonus legislation.

This margin was understood to be regarded by some friends of the president as too narrow and they expected Mr. Harding to call several senators to the white house before Tuesday for a discussion of the situation. With many senators from Washington, it was asserted by some that it was difficult to assess senate sentiment at this time.

Many of the absentees, it was stated could not possibly get back to Washington in time to vote. Five senators are in Europe while four others are in the far west. Several others would be detained by their own illness or that of members of their families.

Should the bonus be returned to the house, managers of it there planned to promptly pass it over the veto.

CHILD SUFFERED SEVERE BURNS

As the result of an accidental fall into a pan of boiling peaches Friday at their home, east of the city, Helen, the four year old daughter of Walter Riley, is at a local hospital suffering from severe burns about the body. Prompt medical attention alleviated the child's condition somewhat but it will be several days before she can again be about.

PLANS COMPLETED TO CARE FOR MEN IN ARGONAUT MINE

Residents of Jackson Still Hopeful That Men Are Alive

(By The Associated Press)
JACKSON, Cal., Sept. 16.—Doctors and nurses, a large equipment of the aides sciences has placed at their command 47 hospital cots graphically told the story tonight of Jackson's undying hope that the 47 miners entombed in the Argonaut mine since August 27, are alive and well will be rescued tomorrow the twenty-first day of their imprisonment.

Men who have been working desperately in the Kennedy mine at the barrier between them and their co-workers went into the Kennedy 3,600 foot level full of confidence that they would advance the work to a point where the rescue work could begin Sunday morning. The men working on this level are the Argonaut mine company men, members of the crews that happened to be offshift when fire attacked the shaft of the Argonaut and cut off the escape of their comrades. It is conceded that unless the unforeseen develops, the Argonaut crew which goes to work at 7 a. m. tomorrow on the 3,600 foot level of the Kennedy mine will break thru into the Argonaut workings ahead of the Kennedy crew working on the 3,900 foot level and thereby liberate their own men, as well as win the $5,000 bonus offered by the Argonaut Mining company to the first crew in.

Officials tonight would make no prediction as to what will be found after the Argonaut mine is opened. It is possible that the two men who were in the 4,200 foot level of the Argonaut where the entry is expected to be made. This may mean days, even weeks of work in order to reach other levels. They also say that the entrapped men may have sought the lower levels and that water may have risen in the mine to such an extent that all who were waiting for rescue have been drowned.

The greatest fear is that of gas caused by the fire in the Argonaut. Analysis showed only two-tenths of one per cent of carbon monoxide in the mine's atmosphere tonight.

It is more than likely officials stated that cave-ins have forced the gas to practically every part of the Argonaut levels. Old Mother Lode miners insist that the level headed leaders would organize their unfortunate co-workers and get them to bulkhead themselves in the lower levels in such a manner that poisoning would be impossible. Furthermore, they argue, these men know the rate at which water rises in the Argonaut and would seek safety on a level where they would be safe for a month at least.

REPLY IS SENT BY RUSSIANS TO NOTE OF LORD BALFOUR

Says Russia Recognizes Only Treaty With Turkey on Dardanelles

(By The Associated Press)
RIGA, Latvia, Sept. 16.—M. Karakhan, Russian soviet deputy foreign commissioner has sent a long reply to a note sent the soviet by Lord Balfour, acting British foreign secretary says a despatch from Moscow today.

The reply states that Russia recognizes only the agreement between Turkey and Soviet Russia regarding the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus concluded in Moscow in 1921, allowing free passage to ships of all nations for commercial purposes only.

Russia, the reply declares, insists that only the interests of countries in the neighborhood of the Black sea should be considered and that more distant countries have no right to interfere.

Regarding a statement in Lord Balfour's communication that the soviet exerted no efforts to restrain the Turkish nationalists, M. Karakhan says Lord Balfour understands the Russian soviet's sympathy with the heroic struggles of the Turks. Russia according to M. Karakhan considers that Turkey is fighting for her existence and is unwilling to surrender the Angora government's defensive struggle.

On the contrary the reply says, Russia has followed with the greatest interest and delight the Turkish successes in Asia Minor.

Set Aside October 1 As Impeachment Day

(By The Associated Press)
16.—Calling upon unions thruout 16.—Calling upon unions thruout the nation to set aside Sunday, October 1, as "impeachment day" for demonstrations against Attorney General Daugherty and Federal Judge Wilkinson the executive council of the American Federation of Labor today waded thru the last of the business which has kept it in annual session here since last Saturday. Notwithstanding its avowed determination to remove the two government officials from office because of their part in obtaining the restraining order against the railroad shop crafts, the council, as one of its last official acts went on record as opposed to a general strike of organized labor in sympathy with the railroad men.

The labor chiefs contended themselves with ordering Secretary Frank Morrison to communicate to the officers of the railroad shopmen that every assistance within their power will be accorded them.

The labor leaders completed their political campaign committee responsibility for speeding preparations to enter the fall campaign; denounced the Esch-Cummings transportation law and the railroad labor board, and made them paramount issues in labor's platform, and expressed

REPRESENTATIVES COME TO BLOWS IN HOUSE YESTERDAY

Oliver of Alabama Slaps Dempsey of New York on Cheek

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—With his open palm, Representative Oliver, Democrat, Alabama, gave Representative Dempsey, Republican, New York, a slap on the cheek in the house today during the hubbub which usually attends the calling of the roll and then as he was attempting to land a second time, members rushed between them.

After the house adjourned, Mr. Oliver and Mr. Dempsey shook hands and the latter said the Alabama member had apologized and they were again "the best of friends."

As explanations came later the house found that the encounter was due to a misunderstanding. Representative Dempsey, chairman of the rivers and harbors committee in charge of the rivers and harbors bill was trying to reduce the time fixed for debate and was on the Democratic side, discussing the question with Mr. Oliver when suddenly the latter's left palm caught the other on the cheek. Other members intervened.

Representative Oliver explained he wanted more than five minutes Representative Dempsey had allotted him in the debate on the item in the rivers and harbor bill relating to the depth of the East River in New York inasmuch as he had presented a preferential motion to concur with a senate amendment which would reduce the appropriation.

Mr. Oliver declared Mr. Dempsey, in a manner which he considered offensive, had replied: "I won't give you any time."

KU KLUX KNIGHT AT BLUFFS PICNIC

Masked Man Appeared Unannounced and Presented Sealed Letter to Widow—Message Accompanied Gift of Currency.

BLUFFS, Sept. 16.—There was an unannounced feature of the picnic here tonight, a member of the Ku Klux Klan, masked, stepped to the platform and made a brief talk about the aims and purposes of the Ku Klux Klan.

Preceding this address the masked messenger of the Invisible Empire handed a sealed envelope to Mrs. Carrie Baulos and asked that she read it.

Opening the envelope Mrs. Baulos found a $20 bill and a brief message stating that the Ku Klux Klan wished her well and desired to extend all the help possible. Mrs. Baulos is a widow with six children, her husband having been killed a number of months ago as a result of a gas-line explosion.

After the Ku Klux Klan representative had made his speech he mingled with the crowd and then quietly slipped away, his departure being almost as unexpected as his appearance.

Miss Florence Short of the farm bureau office is to take a two weeks' vacation, beginning tomorrow. During her absence the position will be filled by Miss Georgia Mawson.

ALLIES PREPARE FOR DEFENCE OF CONSTANTINOPLE

British, French and Italian Troops Are Rushed to Scene

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, Sept. 16.—With British troops entrenching at strategic points on the Dardanelles, French and Italian battalions rushing to join them and from New Zealand word that a contingent will be despatched to the scenes of their heroic sacrifices in the late war to assist in dealing with the Turkish nationalists, there has been a swift carrying into effect of the allied pronouncements regarding a firm determination to preserve the freedom of the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus.

The British troops are supported by heavy artillery and backed by the fleet and officials here are confident that the combined allied land and sea forces, which are declared to be ready prepared for any eventualities, can hold Constantinople against all odds.

The Turks having bombarded the last departing Greek transport from the Chemes peninsula despite the British appeal for mercy on the ground that the Greeks were helpless and no longer combatants Mustafa Kemal Pasha is now supreme over all of Anatolia but has made no direct move toward Constantinople or the straits and the warnings which the allies have voiced thruout Europe and the Near East may have served their purpose.

Smyrna, which last month was the center of Greek rule, is a Shambles with fire raging for three days and continuing, but diminished in violence. Only the Moslem quarter has escaped. Thousands have suffered death and outrages at the hands of the Turks and a thousand helpless in the hospitals were burned to death. The half crazed population and refugees are suffering indescribable misery. Six American relief workers are attempting the super-human task of ministering to the dead and dying.

FORD STRIKE WAS IN FULL SWING AT DETROIT LAST NIGHT

Approximately 73,000 Men Out of Jobs for Indefinite Period

(By The Associated Press)
DETROIT, Mich. Sept. 16.—Henry Ford's industrial strike against what he charges are excessive coal prices was in full swing tonight and approximately 73,000 of his workmen in the Detroit district were out of jobs for an indefinite period. Thousands of others in assembling plants thruout the country also were ordered to lay down their tools.

In addition a score or more of small industrial concerns here dependent upon the Ford Motor company for orders were preparing to close. These employ more than 30,000 men. The Highland Park and River Rouge plants of the Ford Motor company employing about 60,000 men were deserted tonight save for a comparatively small force that will be retained to keep coke ovens warm.

Altho many of them were smiling, the majority of the Ford workers who passed thru the gates of the Highland Park plant after turning in their tools, expressed concern over the shut-down. Their foremen had handed down to them advice from Mr. Ford to buy as little coal as possible and to cut their living expenses to a minimum. The Detroit board of commerce offered its assistance to the motor manufacturer in solving its coal problem.

Mr. Ford refused an offer of 31 cars of coal on the ground it was not suitable for blast furnace work.

CRIDLAND FARM SOLD AT AUCTION

At a public auction held Saturday at the court house the farm of the late Joseph Cridland consisting of about 171 acres of land located three miles west of Jacksonville was offered for sale. The property was sold in two tracts. The home place on the Chapin road consisting of a little more than 91 acres was bought by Elmer Ranson at $227 per acre. The 80 acres on the Markham road was bid in by Frank Jockish of Virginia at $201 per acre.

BLACKENING MASONRY SHOWS WHERE CITY OF SMYRNA ONCE STOOD

Only Small Vestige of the Turkish Quarter is Left—America is Only Country to Come Forward to Help Fire Victims—Thousand Patients Burn to Death in Hospitals

(By The Associated Press)
SMYRNA, Sept. 16.—Smyrna no longer exists. The fire, which has been raging for three days with unabated fury, has swept the city and is extending to the suburbs. Only blackening masonry and a small vestige of the Turkish quarter remain.

Death and indescribable misery permeates among 200,000 in the crazed population. Six American relief workers are attempting the superhuman task of administering to the dead and dying. No other country has come forward to relieve the suffering.

All the patients crowded in hospitals numbering not less than a thousand have been burned to death.

All relief supplies sent from Constantinople by the American relief organizations were destroyed by fire. Major Davis of the American Red Cross and H. C. Jacquith of the Near East relief are bending all their efforts to evacuate the Christians as the only means of saving them, but are handicapped by lack of vessels. Bands of Turks are heartlessly killing the helpless Christians and the whole city is in terror. Rescue work among the ruins is proceeding slowly, the Kemalists leaving the fire victims to their fate.

The catastrophe is so vast that only the collective efforts of the allied nations can cope with it. When the fire was at its worst the American destroyers Lawrence and Litchfield were almost swamped by thousands of maddened survivors who plunged into the water in the darkness of night and swam out to the vessels imploring pityingly to be saved.

The American bluejackets rescued hundreds from drowning. The American sailors ashore were obliged to hold off great crowds at the point of bayonets to keep them from swamping the frail destroyers. The flag was hoisted on the quay and the bluejackets went among the panic stricken people, picking out those with American citizenship papers.

The American flag was like a beacon of hope; hundreds that could speak a few words of English claimed to have been in the United States but could show no satisfactory proof. Others said they had relatives in New York, Chicago, San Francisco and other American cities.

The Americans were forced to turn a deaf ear to these appeals. The big-hearted bluejackets were overcome with motion at the distressing scenes and did their best to comfort the terror-stricken women and children even giving up their own bed rolls, clothing and ration.

Commander Merrill of New York, aide to Rear Admiral Bristol, is hailed as a hero, men, women and children falling on his knees and kissing his garments as he passes thru the refugee concentration areas.

enthusiasm of the present century. The very men who would once have been conspicuous saints are now conspicuous revolutionists; for while their heroism and disinterestedness are their own, the direction which these qualities have taken is determined by the pressure of the age—H. W. Lecky.

It is said that in the distribution of coal in some localities the government authorities are expecting an honor system will be followed and that shipments will be made into areas where coal is greatly needed without regard to possible offerings of higher prices from other localities. Is there such a thing as "honor" in the coal industry?

Talking about coal it is well enough to give second thought to the suggestion the operators frequently make of the severe losses they have sustained because of the shut-down of the mines for a four or five months period.

Isn't it likely there will be such speeding up of production that the lost time will be made good and the total tonnage of the year thus fall not far below normal?

Just about as much coal will be burned within twelve months as if mining operations had run thru the twelve months instead of seven. The argument of heavy losses from the shut-down is full of fallacy.

The soldiers bonus bill is now up to the president and predictions are freely made that he will veto the measure. At any rate many of the senators and congressmen who voted for it hope that the veto comes. There has been much side stepping on this measure down in Washington.

Mr. Ford has certainly given proof that he was not bluffing when he threatened to shut down his big factory because of the high prices demanded for coal. The factories are shut down and 100,000 are out of employment.

Meanwhile it is well to remember that the fall election is only about six weeks in the future. This year the Republicans of this county have a ticket on which they can unite heartily. They have to the satisfying knowledge that G. O. P. success at the polls will mean the choice of men for county offices fully competent to fill them, men of character and stability.

SCHOOL PUPILS AND HOURS OF SLEEP
Now that the schools are again in full swing it will be well if both parents and children give attention to the important relationship there is between sleep and good school work.

The progress of the pupils will depend largely upon their physical fitness to perform the tasks set before them. Physical fitness is largely the result of personal habits, and the latter are almost wholly due to home environment. While school nurses, in those favored schools which have provided this needed service, will do everything humanly possible to protect the pupils against communicable diseases and point out defects which demand the attention of the family physician, there are responsibilities which rest solely upon parents or those who guide the home lives of the children. The sleep requirements of children must receive intelligent attention. There should be a curfew hour in every home. The Illinois department of health has issued a bulletin on this subject which is full of good suggestions.

JOKING ELEPHANT
(NEA)
Meet Hattie, the elephant with a sense of humor; Hattie is the star attraction at Central Park Zoo, New York.
The day being hot, it occurs to Hattie that the kiddies around her cage might like a cold shower bath. So she fills her trunk at the drinking tank and sprays her young spectators again and again.
The kids like it. They stage a young riot.
Jules, a younger elephant, watches the performance, lingers to the water supply and joins in the fun. When the keeper comes rushing up, it appears that the elephants are having more sport than the youngsters. They drench the keeper, head to foot.
A sense of humor involves high mentality.
It makes you wonder, "Do animals think?" Aesop, the Greek slave, thought so when he wrote his fables some 2500 years ago.
When Pelisson was a pioneer in the Bastille, he amused himself by feeding a spider which had spun a web near the cell window. Pelisson, being a privileged guest, had his valet with him. The valet played a bagpipe as soon as Pelisson caught a fly and placed it on an outer strand of the spider's web.
Soon the spider was trained to

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM
Friends
BY BERTON BRALEY
I've read a lot and I've heard a lot
Of the fellow who lost his money,
And promptly lost all the friends he'd got
When things had been bright and sunny;
But it doesn't make me a cynic drear,
For, however misfortune hit you,
I know for a fact—and I say it here,
The Right Kind of Friends won't quit you!
And whether you're rich or whether you're poor,
If the comrades that you have chosen
Are the type I mean, you can be quite sure
Their sympathies won't be frozen
Because your fortunes are going wrong.
But when you are tried and troubled
You'll find the tie of their love is strong
And their loyal faith redoubled.
If it's flatterers, sycophants you want
You can find them, of course in slathers;
And they are the sort who coldly flaunt
Their scorn when the storm cloud gathers.
But true pals care not what fortune sends,
No woes from your side will sweep 'em,
The Right Kind of Guy will have such friends,
And the Right Kind of Guy will keep 'em!

come hurrying forth at the first sound of the music. Eventually Pelisson had the spider educated to travel across the cell and climb his knee to get the fly.

Unquestionably the spider had the faculty of memory, also the rudiments of reasoning. Both are intellectual powers.

You have observed the same sort of intelligence in pet dogs and horses.
In a good many ways, ants and bees have a higher form of civilization than man, measuring civilization in terms of community co-operation with delegation of work to individuals best fitted to handle certain tasks.

Professor Hatchet Souplet, director of the French Institute of Zoological Psychology, a decade ago decided, after studying animals for years, that they have no reasoning powers.
His theory was that animals sometimes act intelligently because they are susceptible to the projection of human will power. He even applied this theory to Herr Krall's horse, Muhammed, which was said to be able to extract cube root, and to Herr Mockel's dog, Rolf, which answered questions by tapping letters of the alphabet with its paws.
Yet we've all seen dogs "that know more than some people."
Man is averse to crediting animals with intelligence, because it doesn't please his vanity, basis of most of his troubles.

TOM MIX
in
'The Fighting Streak'
The title of a William Fox Photoplay is generally a good guide to the sort of entertainment in store for one. This is especially true of the photoplays in which Tom Mix, the popular star, is featured. Therefore, with the announcement of the latest Mix picture, "The Fighting Streak," photoplay fans can bank on plenty of action and adventure. According to reports from points where it has already been shown, this play is even better than "Sky High," a recent Mix release that created a sensation.
"The Fighting Streak" is a title that can be interpreted in several different ways. But every one of them connotes abundant action and entertainment—especially in conjunction with the name of Tom Mix. In this instance it is a story of a brawny young blacksmith in a small western town who is forced by taunts and circumstances to show the fighting streak within him, after vainly trying to avoid trouble because of his promise to a dying mother. When he finally does "see red" and opens up on his bullying tormentors, the result is disastrous for them and sends him off into the hills as an outlaw with a price upon his head.
But there comes the saving power of a beautiful girl and another startling twist to the story which it is declared will delight every photoplay fan.

The Most Abused Word

in the English Language

The word "Quality"—it is like a railroad ticket. Anybody can use it. And, like the ticket, you can't get any place without it.

But, "Quality" expresses the class of tailored-to-measure Suits and Overcoats which this shop turns out, and so long as there is no better word in the English language to express the superior material and workmanship that we put into these garments, at the price, we'll just continue to claim, and to prove "Quality."

Detectives checking up on the movements of Mrs. Mills after she left her home Thursday night learned she was a passenger on an interurban trolley car out of New Brunswick. She rode to the end of the line, which was reached about 8:20 o'clock. The line's end is a short distance from a farm known as the Phillips Place, which borders Russey's Lane.

County authorities promised that an arrest would be made in a few hours.

Autopsy is Ordered.
The Somerset county prosecutor tonight ordered an autopsy performed upon the body of Mrs. Mills. Coroner Long said that the autopsy would be performed tomorrow morning.

The county prosecutor ordered the autopsy after it was learned Mrs. Mills had been a patient in Middlesex hospital during January and February of this year. In one of the later letters given out by the authorities, Mrs. Mills, the police said, addressed the rector as "Dearest" and referred to their hearts as being "as true as steel." In this letter, "there isn't a man who could make me smile as you can. I have the greatest of all blessings—a nobleman's deep true and noble love, and my heart is his. I am forever."

Mrs. Hall, said to be a woman of considerable wealth is ten years her husband's senior. His age was given as 41. Mrs. Mills is 32. The Mills and the Hall families long had been close friends.

PRODUCE MARKET REVIEW

Rain thru most of the producing sections has improved pastures, and gives promise of some increase in the deliveries of cream. Prices show little change from last week. Dairy authorities suggest that at this time of the year, when the grass is short, it is a good plan to give the cows a little extra feed, both morning and evening, in order to keep up the milk flow.

The supply of fresh eggs is smaller and good prices are being paid. There is an over-supply of held stock and prices are not quite as firm as last week. There is a large surplus of eggs in cold storage.

Poultry receipts have been about normal for the season. The approaching Jewish holidays have increased the demand, with some advance noted for live poultry and a more satisfactory situation for dressed stock. Any large increase in the movement would probably be followed by some reaction in prices.

A number of friends and relatives gathered at the home of Frank Horton recently in honor of the fiftieth wedding anniversary of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Horton. Altho Mr. and Mrs. Horton were married fifty years last March it could not be held then on account of bad weather and illness. Mr. William Horton and Miss Arzula Moore were married March 27, 1872, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Moore of Schuyler county, Ill. Mr. Horton was the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Horton, and was born Nov. 20, 1847, in Coshockton county, Ohio.

When a small boy his parents moved to Illinois, settling in Schuyler county. Mr. Horton was too young to enter the war of the Rebellion, being but 14 years old when it broke out. He is still able to do his daily chores always raises a good garden and looks after many other things of interest. In politics Mr. Horton is a strong supporter of the Democratic party. Mrs. Horton was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Moore, and was born in Schuyler county, Ill., Sept. 21, 1854. She made that place her home until nearly 30 years ago when she and her husband moved to Morgan county, where they have made their home. Mrs. Horton is still able to do her general house work and many other things also. She has always devoted herself to her home and its welfare. Mr. and Mrs. Horton have also twelve grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. The feature of the day was the cutting of the 50 egg cake.

Miss Alice Moore secured the ring, Mrs. Josie Lanchance, of Springfield, the dime; Herman Sheppard the thimble. The party that received the button never said a word.

Buying or Investing ---Which?

There is a great difference between buying a watch and investing in it. We buy to possess. We invest in a thing for what return it will give us.

In buying a Watch of us you will get a time-piece that will pay you back more than ever put into it. You buy something more than a watch—

You buy beauty—you buy dependability—you buy life-long service—you buy time-telling, all the time.

We sell all the leading American made watches—each of which is a timepiece that will not fail you and will become more valuable as the years prove to you its inherent goodness and lasting fidelity.

LEGIONNAIRES TO GO TO ROCK ISLAND

Local Post of World War Veterans Will Send Delegation to State Meeting.

A number of the members of Jacksonville American Legion post will attend the state meeting at Rock Island Sept. 25 and 26. The official delegates of the post are: E. E. Henderson and C. N. Kehl. Among others to attend will be Louis A. Cain, John W. Larson and Russell McAlister. Still others plan to attend and the list of delegates will not be complete until later in the week.

Colonel David M. King, commander of Rock Island Arsenal since the world war, the largest arsenal in the United States, will deliver the first address before the convention of the auxiliary. Colonel King's address will be heard Monday Morning, September 5, directly after the opening exercises.

The auxiliary delegates representing wives, mothers and sisters of Illinois Legionnaires will have a program for two days, just as complete with interest, as promising of service, as the Legion's own. For entertainment the auxiliary first of all lists the big uniform parade, which will occur the afternoon of the first day. The auxiliary will not march, but will view the parade from the side lines.

Their convention will open at 9 a. m. Monday. Following the reading of the convention call, and the "salute to the flag," the reading of the preamble to the constitution, and the singing of "America," invocation will be said by the department chaplain, Mrs. Mary Southworth, of Danville.

The welcome to Rock Island will be extended by Mrs. Fannie B. Patient of the Rock Island unit. Commander W. A. Rosenfield of the Rock Island post of the Legion, and Mayor H. H. Schriver of Rock Island. The response to these three addresses of welcome will be voiced by Mrs. L. E. Mitchell of Chicago.

Addresses by Colonel King of the Rock Island Arsenal and by the national president of the auxiliary, Mrs. Lowell F. Mobart of Cincinnati, Ohio, will bring the morning session to the first matter of business, the reading of minutes and the appointment of committee. Special music by Mrs. Howard Klove and Miss Catherine Stauduhar, both of Rock Island will intersperse the other items on the program.

Big Parade Monday. Monday afternoon will be devoted to the big parade and a river trip aboard the "Washington."

The evening session will open with invocation by Mrs. Sylvia Dunavin of Rock Island, and community singing, led by Miss Margaret Seaton of Rock Island. Then will follow the report of the department president, Mrs. W. E. Hartman of Decatur; department vice president, Mrs. C. J. Clothier, Rockford; Mrs. Harry Bray, Quincy; Mrs. Minnie E. Bigelow, Salem; Mrs. L. H. Griffith, Danville; and Mrs. George M. Kellogg, Jr., Chicago; the corresponding secretary, Mrs. Fred A. Carmack, Decatur; the financial secretary, Mrs. Reba Williams, El Paso; the treasurer, Mrs. E. A. Parker, Peoria; and the historian.

Opening the Tuesday morning session, Department Commander William R. McCauley, will address the auxiliary delegates. After he has finished the convention will tackle the reports of committees on resolutions; legislation; Americanization; education; finance; nominations; vacation and memorial.

An official automobile trip through Rock Island and environs will be given the delegates at 1 p. m. Tuesday.

The election of department officers for the next year; the election of a national committee woman, and national delegates to the New Orleans convention, and the selection of the time and place for the next year's convention will bring the meeting to a close.

Preliminary reports of officers indicate a meeting here surpassing in attendance and interest any of those gone before. The headquarters of the auxiliary while here will be at Como hotel.

This blurring is caused by the eye not being able to focus at the normal reading distance—fourteen inches. Rogers Hornsby Has Dangerous Rival In Tierney of Pirates

Latter Has Been Coming Fast in Recent Weeks—Is Now Hitting .380—Sisler With Average of .424 Apparently Has American Honors Cinched—Other League Results

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—Rogers Hornsby, the St. Louis star, who a few weeks ago appeared to have the batting championship of the National league tucked in his hip pocket, today has cause for worry over the prospects of bagging the 1922 honors.

Jimmy Tierney of the pennant contending Pirates, is the bogey ahead of Hornsby.

The Pirate, star second baseman, has been traveling at such a hot pace with the willow that he is only seventeen points behind the St. Louis favorite and, with the close of the season three weeks away, may become a dangerous contender.

Just a little over a month ago Tierney launched his drive for batting honors, but it was thought this was only a flash in the pan. However he has been improving his average each week and the latest figures which include games of Wednesday, show him hitting .380 compared with .345 four weeks ago. In his last six games Tierney has made eleven hits which added four points to his mark of a week ago. Tierney has bagged 211 hits in 104 games, his drives including twenty-four doubles, thirteen triples and seven homers. Max Carey of the Pirates has increased his lead in stolen bases to forty-two and his record of runs scored to one hundred twenty-seven.

Hornsby, however, is leading the regulars with an average of .397, and has increased his home run record string to thirty-five, having bagged one four bagger during the past week.

The Pirates in their race to overtake the Giants are out in front in batting with an average of .311. The Giants are hitting .305, while the Cardinals are third with .302.

Other leading batters for 100 or more games:

Grimes, Chicago, .353; Bigbee, Pittsburgh, .350; Miller, Chicago, .349; Hollocher, Chicago, .345; Daubert, Cincinnati, .343; Harper, Cincinnati, .341; Carey, Pittsburgh, .338; Kelly, New York, .335; Duncan, Cincinnati, .335.

The injury to George Sisler has cast a gloom not only over St. Louis but in thousands of other cities and where the fans have been pulling for the Browns to win the American League pennant. The Browns were going strong in their race against New York in the sizzling race for the flag but the unfortunate injury to the St. Louis phenom has thrown a wrench into the working of the team. Sisler, however, declared his intention of getting back into the line-up, despite the fact that his physician said he would have to rest a week or more and probably would be unable to play again this season.

If Sisler is not able to get back in the game his batting average of .424 appears to be high enough to safely insure his position as leading hitter for the 1922 season. His closest rival, Ty Cobb, a thirty one points behind, and he chances of his catching up are remote. Cobb's average is .393. Sisler has the edge for stolen base honors with forty seven, while Kenneth Williams a teammate lagging along with thirty three.

The race of Babe Ruth to overtake Williams and Tillie Walker of the Athletics for the home run honors is becoming more exciting. Walker smashed out three during the past week and ran his string to thirty five, while Williams bagged two for a total of thirty even and the Babe crashed out a ke number for a total of thirty six.

Other leading batters for 100 or more games: Speaker, Cleveland, .375; Heilmann, Detroit, .373; Schang, New York, .367; Ebbin, St. Louis, .364; Galloway, Philadelphia, .361; Pipp, New York, .351; Bassler, Detroit, .348; Williams, St. Louis, .327; Edd, Detroit, .326; Miller, Philadelphia, .326.

American Association. Beals Walker, outfielder with a Kansas City club, is the new challenger for the batting championship of the American Association. Becker, in his last eight games, connected with sixteen hits, which shot him from fourth second place, just three points behind Myatt of Milwaukee, who is leading with an average of .37.

Becker, with an average of .37, jumped ahead of Jay Kille of Louisville and Wilbur Good, of Kansas City, leaving Kille third in an average of .362 and Good fourth with .355. Becker is a considerable of a home run man for with twenty-four to his credit. Brief of Kansas City, however, is leading the league in driving homers with a total of fifty five. This is two above his mark of a week ago. The averages include games of Wednesday.

Lamar of Toledo and Bergham of St. Paul are making good, the Indianapolis star, to retain the lead in base hitting. Boird has stolen twenty while his two contenders are lagging with twenty three.

Other leading batters for the fifty or more games: Lear, Milwaukee, .354; Brown, Indianapolis, .351; Combs, Louisville, .349.

CHICAGO SPLIT EVEN WITH BROOKLYN

Cubs Take the First Contest, 7 to 5, and the Dodgers the Second, 1 to 0. The Second Game Was a Pitchers' Battle Between Two Rookies and Went Ten Innings.

BROOKLYN, Sept. 16.—Chicago and Brooklyn divided a double header today the Cubs taking the first game 7 to 5 and the Dodgers winning the second in 10 innings 1 to 0. Miller's home run with the bases full gave Jones a four run lead in the first game, but he was knocked out in the third inning. The Dodgers tied the score with Aldridge in the box in the fourth, but he held them to one hit. Ruelher lost in the ninth when the Cubs scored two runs on a pass, two errors and Terry's single.

Shriver and Keen, two rookies had a pitcher's duel in the second game, the only run being scored by High in the tenth on his single, two sacrifice bunts which went as fielders' choices when the base runners beat the throws and Olson's long drive to center.

WITT HIT IN HEAD BY POP BOTTLE

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 16.—Lawson Witt, center fielder for the New York Yankees had his forehead split open when struck by a pop bottle presumably thrown by a fan, today.

Witt was carried off the field by fellow players and taken to the club house where physicians announced that he was not seriously hurt. The bottle cut a deep gash in Witt's forehead but it was announced it did not cause a fracture. It was believed that the injury would prevent Witt from playing for several days.

Umpire Evans announced he would send the bottle to Ban Johnson, president of the American league. It was impossible to identify who threw the missile.

William H. Tilden Wins from Johnson

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 16.—For the third time in three years William T. Tilden, II, of this city, the national lawn tennis champion of the United States, in a match which surpassed any similar tennis contest in the history of the oldest follower of the game he defeated William M. Johnston of San Francisco, 4-6; 3-6; 6-2; 6-3; 6-4.

A gallery of 14,000 spectators gathered in the stand of the German Cricket Club witnessed a match played under perfect weather conditions such as is seldom, if ever offered, at the climax of a national or international match in this or any other country. Words and figures are poor tools with which to carve for posterity a record of the contest staged today by the two greatest tennis players of their time. It transcended any similar battle in the memory of the oldest follower of the game. At the close of the one hour and 40 minutes struggle the gallery was in a state of hysteria and exhaustion almost equal to that of the contestants. Rooting for first one player and then the other, the spectators toward the close of the struggle, began to call shots and dispute linesmen's decisions until play was of necessity halted several times.

Battling desperately, yet with the most perfect court sense and racquet control for permanent possession of the championship trophy on which each held two legs, the two "Bills" gave an exhibition of super-tennis play of astonishing and stupefying caliber.

Master wielders of hickory and gut they served, drove, volleyed and lobbed with a speed and precision which left the average tournament player agast at their skill. Impossible appearing placements were turned into scintillating returns; service aces, shot at eye baffling speed, flew back to far corners of court while the dripping, gasping contestants raced about the turf at bewildering speed.

At the end of what was undoubtedly one of the most gruelling tennis matches in history Tilden led Johnston by just four games and 16 points. No better example of the almost even ability of the two need be cited. Tilden won but his margin of victory lay entirely in his racquet wizardry. It was his greater physical proportions, power and endurance that contributed to his retention of the cup.

In the last analysis it was Tilden's superior physical attributes and his wider repertoire of strokes that forced Johnston's defeat. Master of almost every form of racquet return he met the best that "Little Bill" had to offer and went him just a little bit better.

INDEES PLAY RUBBER WITH COURT OF HONOR

Fast Springfield Team Here to Play Deciding Game of Series—Dove Will Oppose Fryman.

Seth Dove and his Court of Honor team will be here today for the deciding clash with the Indies at South Side park.

The teams have each won a game and the contest today will be hard fought. On the first visit of the Court of Honor here, Dove was in fine form and held the Indies safe thruout.

In the second game he had all his stuff but it was to the locals' liking and they bumped him for thirteen hits. Fryman also was right that day and served up better pitching to the visitors than the had been used to facing.

Fryman has had two week rest now and should be in great shape today. If he is and the Indies can give him a run or two he should win the game. Anyway it goes it will be a good game to see. The contest will be called at 3 o'clock and Donahue will handle the indicator. The lineups:

Court of Honor: Albers, 1b; Olive, cf; Brennan, 3b; Wattling, ss; Flannigan, 2b; Lynch, rf; White, lf; Ford, c; Dove, p; Welch, p.

Indies: Denny, ss; Wheeler, 1b; Kohloff, 2b; Christopher, lf; DeFries, 3b; Hamm, cf; McDaniel, rf; Clark, c; Fryman, p; Zell, p.

Bob Shawkey Bests Shocker In Pitcher's Battle at St. Louis

Yankees Take the First Game of Series by a Score of 2 to 1—George Sisler Plays and Gets Double Making Fortieth Consecutive Game in Which He Has Hit Safely

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 16.—Bob Shawkey bested Urban Shocker in a pitchers' battle and the New York Yankees defeated the St. Louis Browns 2 to 1 today in the first game of a three game series which it is generally believed will decide the championship of the American League. The victory put th Hugmen a game and a half ahead of the Fohls.

Allowing only seven hits and issuing no bases on balls, Shawkey was supreme thruout, while Shocker was touched for nine hits and two walks.

New York counted its first run in the second inning when Meusel singled, went to second on Jacobson's fumble, advanced to third on Ward's sacrifice and scored on Scott's single. The Yanks scored again in the third on Dugan's single, Ruth's single and a sacrifice fly by Pipp.

The Browns scored in the sixth on Gerber's single, Shocker's infield out and singles by Tobin and Foster. Sisler hit into a double play in this inning, preventing further scoring by the Fohls. Sisler's two base hit in the fourth inning marked the fortieth consecutive game in which the first baseman has hit, his performance tying the major league record for hitting in consecutive games hung up by Ty Cobb of the Detroit Americans in 1911.

Sisler resumed his position today after an absence of several days, due to an injured shoulder which seemed to bother him considerably while throwing and batting.

A crowd which filled almost every available foot of space inside the park and which swarmed on the playing field at times, saw the contest.

Many fans were refused admittance shortly before the game started.

Ropes were stretched on the field and reinforced while mounted police patrolled the park both inside and outside.

Some of the fans had waited outside the park from Friday night until noon today to see the contest.

GALAXY OF RACING
STARS AT RANDALL

September 22 will be known as Field Day for Champions when many will race against time—Peter Manning heads the list.

CLEVELAND.—Never in the history of harness racing have so many champions appeared in one day as will, compete against time at North Randall, on September 22. The day, known as 'Field Day for the Champions,' is to be held in connection with a matinee of the Gentlemen's Driving Club.

Peter Manning, the fastest trotter in the world, will attempt to lower his mark of 1:57 3-4. The program also includes time trials by Nedda, 1:59 1-4; Arion Guy, 1:59 1-2; Margaret Dillon, 2:00; Guardian Trust, 2:03 3-4; and Prince Loree.

Nedda, the champion trotting mare, made her record of 1:59 1-4 during the recent Grand Circuit race meeting at Toledo.

She is the only trotting mare to accomplish the feat of negotiating a mile in two minutes or better without the aid of a pace setter. Lou Dillon, the only other mare to trot as fast, made her mark of 1:59 1-2 with two pace makers. Arion Guy is the champion four-year-old trotter, and the fastest living trotting stallion.

Margaret Dillon is the pacing queen of the country.

Guardian Trust is the champion three-year-old trotter and the fastest four-year-old of 1922.

Prince Loree, the champion double-gaited horse, holds a record of 2:00 for pacing and 2:03 1-4 as a trotter. It is the latter that he will attempt to lower.

North Randall track is being put into excellent shape for the occasion, and predictions are freely made by horsemen here that at least some of the horses will succeed unless weather conditions interfere.

CATTLE MARKET PROSPECTS
A. A. Curry the past week sold two loads of cattle on the St. Louis market at $8.75 per 100. They were grass cattle but had been fed corn for about six weeks, and showed a very satisfactory profit.

Mr. Curry believes that conditions for feeding cattle are good and that prices will be maintained to an extent that will mean profit for experienced feeders. He also takes a hopeful view of the high market and does not look for a serious decline in prices.

Mr. Curry believes that when the actual facts are known about the corn crop that the total will be far below the general estimate.

KU KLUX KLAN AFFAIRS INTEREST MANY

Movement Subject of Frequent Attacks—Local Kleeagle Writes Statement of Klan Purposes From Organization View Point

Interest in the Ku Klux Klan movement is constantly taking on new impetus. In Springfield the past week a deposed officer of the Klan there brought court action against the order, claiming false imprisonment and alleging other damages.

At the national assembly of the Episcopal church in Portland resolutions were adopted making unfavorable reference to lodges whose members wear masks.

Tonight a Jacksonville minister, Rev. Thomas W. Smith, at Westminster church is to use the Ku Klux Klan as the theme of his evening discourse.

Saturday a masked member of the Klan appeared unexpectedly at a picnic, delivered an envelope containing a gift of currency to a woman recently widowed. These incidents are only a few that might be narrated to indicate that there is public interest in the Klan, its doings and purposes.

As a matter of news interest, publication is given herewith to a second Ku Klux Klan article received on the mail by the Journal bearing the signature of a Kleeagle of the Klan.

To the Editor of the Journal: I wish to thank you for printing my article last week and ask that you oblige me with the following article on the Unvarnished Truth of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

The Ku Klux Klan—The Invisible Empire—was the Great Idea of American reconstruction. I say "American reconstruction" for the reason all America was affected by the reconstruction influences. The south most of all, yes, nevertheless—all; for the great threat to the white race that loomed on the horizon of the south would have spread thruout the entire nation, had not the white robe of the Ku Klux Klan kept unrevealed those courageous and devoted hearts that were consecrated to saving the Anglo-Saxon civilization of our country, protecting the homes and well-being of our people and shielding the virtue of pure womanhood.

The original Ku Klux Klan were not outlaws. They were men of moral, social standing and their leaders were men of sterling character and unquestioned culture. They reverently bowed to the soul of law, and swore to enforce its principles of justice, protection and the pursuit of happiness. Their strong arm fought valiantly for the preservation of the integrity of the race against the cruelty of base, unjust and tyrannical legislation and insufferable conditions created by a horde of conscienceless diabolical, greed and lust-crazed adventurers that swarmed down from the north to use the negro for their own damnable, selfish ends.

Unfair to Negroes.

These adventurers poisoned the minds of and brutalized the minds of negro and converted many of them into human beasts by their cheap whisky and glaring promises of rich reward and looted them, armed and inflamed upon the sacred privileges and persons of the suffering and defenseless southern people.

The Ku Klux Klan stood firmly upon the solemn promise of the federal government made thru General Grant to General Lee, and the rights of its citizens vouchsafed by the constitution and it swore allegiance for the principles of the constitution. It was the defender of justice, the enforcer of civil and racial law and the great regulator of the galling irregularities of prostituted law at the hands of scoundrel men, the mentioning of whose names is an insult to the blood of the race of the Caucasian stock. It struck from the neck of the wounded, bleeding, pauperized and prostrated south the heel of the degenerated outlaw—the "scalawag" and the "carpetbagger" and made possible the birth of the greatest nation of all time—the re-United States of America; it destroyed the fanatic's hope of the amalgamation of the races, firmly established the most valuable heritage of the races—white supremacy—and restored the people of Washington, Jefferson, Marion and their compatriots in the founding of the nation to their rightful place in the peerless pleasure of American citizenship.

The Ku Klux Klan by its unselfish, patriotic achievements stands pre-eminent as the greatest order of real chivalry the world has ever known and its members were the noblest heroes in the great world's history. In simple justice should their sacred memory be forgotten? Should their patriotic achievements be lost to posterity? Shall we of this and those of future generations allow the cruel calumny, satanic slander and flagrant falsehoods heaped upon them for the past half century to pass, be repeated and go unanswered by an accurate and honest revelation of the whole truth, and suffer our progeny to believe that they are under disgrace by being descendants of a degraded beastly ancestry. No! No! No!

Build Memorial.

No real men in all America will consent to such a crime against the heroic dead. Hence, a great memorial is now being built to commemorate those men and perpetuate their spiritual purpose and ideals. This monument shall be constructed of real American manhood and cast in the proportions and character of a great fraternal order and it is and shall be known as the Invisible Empire Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

The spirit of the Ku Klux Klan still lives, and should live a priceless heritage to be sacredly treasured by all those who live their country regardless of section, and are proud of its sacred traditions. That this spirit may live always to warm the hearts of manly men, unify them by the spirit of a holy clanishness, to assuage the billowing tide of fraternal alienation that surges in human breasts, and inspire them to achieve the highest and noblest in the defense of our country, our race, our homes, each other and humanity is the paramount ideal of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan—a great institution of men of character and intelligence, men who aspire to that which is noble for themselves and humanity.

This is rather a lengthy article but I am asking that you try to include it in full in your Sunday morning paper.

Very truly yours, Kleeagle of the Invisible Empire Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

FARM SUPPLY CO.

CONSOLIDATES PLANTS

A number of years ago the Jacksonville Farm Supply company was organized in this city occupying the large building at the corner of North West and Court streets. Later they purchased the big warehouse and storage plant of the Jacksonville Transfer company located at the junction of East State street and the C. & A. tracks, and here for several years have carried on a wholesale business in farming implements and machinery.

For some time the management of the Jacksonville Farm Supply company has felt that a consolidation of their two plants would enable them to not only give quicker and better service to their many patrons, but would enable them to lower prices to such an extent that their farmer friends would make a distinct gain.

A wholesale and retail business covering practically every known tool, machine or implement that the farmer may need in the conduct of his operations will be carried on at the East State address.

The company, in connection with representatives from the factories of several lines they handle, has a large exhibition at the Springfield state fair and Theo C. Hagel, treasurer, and O. A. Ward, salesman, have gone to Springfield to take active charge.

WOULD DEVELOP BETTER MEN AS WELL AS PLANTS

Luther Burbank, Plant Wizard, Hopes to Have His Influence Recorded in the Developing of Better Men—Says the Same Laws Applying to Plants Govern Human Life

(By The Associated Press)

SANTA ROSA, Calif.—If fulfillment comes to the hopes and ideals of Luther Burbank, foremost plant breeder of the world, history also will record his influence in the developing of better men, as well as better plants, for he regards improvement of mankind as a greater work than improvement of plant species.

"I hope that the same laws, as far as practicable, which I have discovered and demonstrated in plant life will be applied to the improvement of human life," said the dean of plant scientists in his Santa Rosa home.

"This in a measure can, must and will be done," he asserted.

Although every possible minute of Burbank's day is given to his plant experiments, he is glad to give time to civic affairs, especially to the Boy Scouts, playground activities and school doings, for in these he sees the beginning of the application to mankind of his principles of plant breeding.

"My time is all too short to do all I wish and hope yet to do," he says.

The improvement of plants, according to Burbank, is in its earliest infancy, but "the possibilities are limitless," he declares.

"In mechanics and electricity great progress already has been made, but, as every scientist knows, it is hardly a beginning," says Burbank, in comparing mechanical and plant knowledge.

After sixty years of plant breeding he enunciates the principle "Plants are pliable and amenable to the will of man, but this has never been surmised by the general public until the last twenty-five years."

Agriculturists a few years ago reported to Burbank that the tall stalks on which sunflowers grew made it unhandy to harvest the seeds. Burbank set to work on the problem, and this year is marketing seeds of a new sunflower, which grows on a three foot stalk. The bloom has been so greatly enlarged that it is a heavy producer of seeds than other varieties and the seeds are white.

Next year he will give the world six new peaches, a new plum which does not need to be dipped before drying, a new plum and a new nectarine. He has also been working several years on potatoes in the hope of producing a new variety which will rival his famous "Burbank" grown and used in greater quantity than any other, and after countless experiments has narrowed his experimental varieties down to sixty, from which he will eventually bring out one or more varieties for the world.

The Santa Rosa plant scientist, having produced many fruits, berries, vegetables, grasses and grains of great benefit to mankind, is today giving a bit more to the development of beautiful plants and blossoms, although in no measure giving up his work and interest in food, clothing and timber producing plants.

But it is in the development of striking colors in plants and flowers, of pleasing flower fragrances and new flavors in fruits, that his experiments show breadth of imagination. Hundreds of visitors stop in amazement each day at the low fences surrounding his experimental plots in this city and gaze enraptured at the shades of some glorified popular flower—some new zinnia, poppy, gladiolus or larkspur.

Thousands of Colors
Burbank has a hundred thousand new color shades and varieties of the gladiolus, in every conceivable color and combination of color and of unequal size and freedom of bloom.

His new amaranthus "Molten Fire," is his newest pride. It is a plant from three to four feet in height and three feet across and whose leaves develop an iridescent, fiery, crimson, salmon color, a hue never before seen on land or sea, in any plant or anything else except the intense heat of the electric furnace. It retains its brilliancy of color for three months. Two years ago there was only one of these plants in the world.

Constantly increasing publicity for Burbank's work has resulted in his experimental grounds here becoming the Mecca for thousands of scientists and world notables in every profession.

He receives as many of these as possible, but the unnumbered thousands who come cannot, of course, be admitted to the grounds.

LOCAL MERCHANT AT N. Y. CONVENTION

T. M. Tomlinson at National Meeting of Clothing Men and Furriers Boosts For Home State and City.

T. M. Tomlinson, president of the Illinois Retail Clothiers association, has been in New York for a number of days attending the national convention of clothiers and furriers. The convention was one of the largest of the organization has ever held, representatives being present from all parts of the U. S.

The Daily News-Record of New York gives a page of pictures showing delegations and persons prominent in the organization from various states. One picture shows the officers of the Illinois Association of Retail Clothiers who are "boosting to bring the 1923 convention to Chicago."

In the group are T. M. Tomlinson, Jacksonville, president; A. C. Carlson, Princeton, treasurer and H. F. Leavitt, Kankakee, secretary. The same paper gives an interview with Mr. Tomlinson in which interesting phases of the trade in Illinois are presented.

Retail clothiers in the State of Illinois are, as a general rule, entering the fall season with a cleaner and smaller stock of apparel than for some time past, says T. M. Tomlinson, of Jacksonville, president of the Illinois Retail Clothiers' Association, who has spent much of his time in recent weeks in visiting merchants in his locality relative to the membership drive of the association.

Because the retailers made small purchases early in the season, they are in position to take hold of the new things being offered.

Mr. Tomlinson, adding that the majority of the retailers he visited were in an optimistic frame of mind.

Jacksonville and Morgan county are located in one of the richest farming sections of the country and crop conditions this year are above normal. The farmers are in good shape, he says, and with the settlement of the strikes, enabling them to get their grain from the elevators, there need be no worry about the retailers' fall business. Mr. Tomlinson points out, however, that the farmer and the general buying public in his part of the State are not looking for $50 or $75 suits as in war times, but are demanding garments retailing at $25 to $40. With corn selling at 47 to 50 cents per bushel and wheat from 90 to 95 cents, it appears the medium prices will prevail during the coming season, he declares.

That splendid progress has already been made in rebuilding the membership of the Illinois Retail Clothiers' Association is evidenced in the fact that when the new administration came into office after the convention in February, there were only 144 members on the books and about the middle of August as a result of an energetic effort during the several weeks previous, the membership was boosted over the 300 mark.

As result of the conferences of the Illinois retailers' officials, to which President R. C. Visk and other executives of the Merchants' Apparel Club of Illinois were invited, the two organizations are cooperating in splendid fashion in the membership drive and are expected to cooperate in other ways to the benefit of the men's apparel trade throughout the State.

He receives as many of these as possible, but the unnumbered thousands who come cannot, of course, be admitted to the grounds.

Good Business This Fall Says Babson

The Statistician Gives Reasons for Substantial Improvement

Wellesley Hills, Mass., Sept. 16th, 1922. Roger Babson, economist, is not upset by labor difficulties and the threatened coal shortage. In a statement issued today he forecasts good business for the next few months.

"Go after business now!" says Mr. Babson. "Buyers during these past two years have been following a hand to mouth policy. Everyone has purchased as little as possible because a delay has meant lower prices and a consequent saving. With the turn of the business tide, however, prices are tending up and both business man and individual will make more money by buying ahead rather than by following the more conservative policy. An analysis of 76 basic materials for instance shows that 48 are higher today than they were a year ago, 24 are lower than a year ago, while 4 commodities show no change. Price increase will be felt most on the raw materials that have been completely deflated, but finished goods in practically all lines will show some strengthening during the next few months."

"It is particularly important that retail merchants fully grasp this change in the situation. They must turn with the tide. The retailer should plan on a substantial increase in trade between now and Christmas. If he does not he will be caught with a shortage rather than a surplus of goods, and a transportation tie-up will make it difficult to get more on short notice.

"This increase in business will be due to a combination of increased purchasing power and a change in the attitude of the general public. In spite of the strikes and labor unrest there is relatively little unemployment at present. On incomes over $1000 figures show that 48 percent of the purchasing power of the country comes to the individual as wages and salaries. This makes up the bulk of the purchasing power upon which the average business man must depend. A drop in the cost of living and prospect of steady work is rapidly turning a majority of these people into ready buyers.

"In the farming field, bumper crops and better prices promise to class the farmer as a good prospect. He has bought very little since 1920 and his accumulated needs should absorb a tremendous quantity of farm machinery and supplies. The plans of the business world accumulated during these past two years will also be put into operation this fall."

"The combination of these several factors points to a merchandizing shortage. If I were a retailer I should certainly buy all goods necessary for Christmas trade now and insist upon early deliveries.

"This general increased business activity will lead in turn to the increased business and industrial profits that are already being reflected in the action of the stock market. Increased profits, of course, mean more money for expansion and equipment. Rents and money rates, in the meantime, are tending gradually downward relieving both individual and business house in the matter of overhead. Banks have ample funds to meet all commercial and investment requirements. In many localities money is a drug on the market. The slight seasonal tightening will doubtless be experienced at crop moving time, but taking the fall season as a whole, money should come nearer to the New York market level.

"In the investment market, prices of good bonds promise to rule strong this fall. As investment capital accumulates the interest rates ease off, bond prices automatically rise. As profits and income increase, the non-taxable issues will again be in demand. The affect of commodity prices will be more than offset for the time being by the quantity of money available. Continue to hold your bonds."

"Whether or not we shall have a reaction in the stock market this fall is not the point. We may get the break that the 'bears' are hoping for or stocks may climb suddenly. The point of importance, as I see it, is the fact that we have just turned the corner at the bottom of a period of depression and that the stock market has never reached its high point until early in the period of prosperity. Those who own good stocks outright need not worry about the market."

In spite of rail and coal difficulties, general business as reflected in the index of the Babsonchart is holding its own. Activity is now running at 9 percent below normal.

"The Political Religion of the Nation"

Address of Abraham Lincoln When He Was Twenty Eight Years Old, Before the Young Men's Lyceum, at Springfield, Illinois

"In the great journal of things happening under the sun, we Americans people, find our account running under date of the nineteenth century of the Christian era. We find ourselves in the peaceful possession of the fairest portion of the earth, as regards fertility of soil, extent of territory, and salubrity of climate. We find ourselves under the government of a system of political institutions conducted more essentially to the ends of civil and religious liberty than any of which the history of former times tells us.

"We, when mounting the stage of existence, find ourselves the legal inheritors of these fundamental blessings. We find ourselves in the acquisition or the establishment of them. They are legacies bequeathed to us by a once hardy, brave, patriotic, but now lamented and departed race of ancestors. Theirs was the task (and nobly they performed it) to possess themselves, and thru themselves us, of this goodly land and to rear upon its hills and in its political edifices of liberty and equal rights. 'Tis ours only to transmit these, the former unprofaned by the foot of the invader and the later uncayed by the lapse of time. This, our duty to ourselves, and our posterity, and love for our species in general, imperatively requires us to perform.

"How then shall we perform it? At what points shall we expect the approach of danger? By what means shall we fortify against it? Shall we expect some Transatlantic giant to step across the ocean and crush us at a blow? Never. All the armies of Europe, Asia and Africa combined with all the treasure of the earth (our own excepted) in their own military chest, with a Bonaparte for a commander, could not by force take a drink from the Ohio or make a track on the Blue Ridge in a trial of a thousand years. At what point then is the approach of danger to be expected? I answer, if it ever reaches us, it must spring up among us. It cannot come from abroad. It is our duty to ourselves, and our posterity, and love for our species in general, imperatively requires us to perform.

U. C. T. IS PLANNING MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

Local Organization Held Enthusiastic Meeting Last Night—Will Also Give Big Dance Soon.

Jacksonville Council No. 182 United Commercial Travelers held an enthusiastic meeting in Odd Fellows' temple Saturday evening. There was a large attendance of members and much "pep" was shown in talking over plans for the fall and winter season.

One of the most important matters considered was a drive of increase the membership of the organization. Plans were formulated to get twenty-five candidates for the next ceremonial date of which has not definitely been set.

The council was divided into two teams with Senior Counselor H. A. McLaughlin and Junior Counselor John E. Rose as captains. The losing side probably will have to furnish a banquet for the winners.

The degree staff of the local council will exemplify the work. This staff took first in the state last year so it is assured that the candidates will receive full value for their money.

It was also decided to give a big dance in the near future. The exact date has not been fixed and the place of holding is not settled. However these details will be worked out in a few days.

Harry Cain was made a committee of one to look after giving publicity to affairs of the traveling men of the city. In recent years many salesmen have been located in Jacksonville. They are all citizens of high class and have taken an active part in all community enterprises. Many outside of the fraternity will be interested in this column which will soon appear in the Journal.

Following the business meeting the members enjoyed a smoker.

NATIONAL LEADERS OF AMERICAN LEGION TO ATTEND CONVENTION

Hanford MacNider Will Be Present—Mr.

Lowell F. Hobart of Cincinnati Will Also

Be Present—Illinois Bonus is to Take

First Place in Interest at Rock Island

(By The Associated Press)

ROCK ISLAND, Sept. 16.—National leaders of the American Legion, the "Forty and Eight" and the Legion Auxiliary will all attend the Illinois conventions of their organizations in this city, September 25-26, according to the announcement of Department Adjutant William Q. Setcliffe.

The national commander of the Legion, Hanford MacNider, had been counted on from the first, but it was not certain until this week that the national president of the auxiliary, Mrs. Lowell F. Hobart of Cincinnati, and national head of the "Forty and Eight", Edward J. Ives would attend. They will speak at the convention of the own organizations and then at a joint meeting of the Legion and the auxiliary.

Both the Legion and auxiliary, Department Adjutant Setcliffe has indicated, will stress Americanization in the programs, but because of the proximity of the election, November 7, the Illinois bonus will probably take first place in interest. Only six weeks will separate the convention here from the voting.

Direction of the campaign for the bonus has been placed in the hands of P. W. Zerwekh of the Alton post, who has been named chairman of the state Compensation committee. Thus far his conduct of the campaign has already brought his name and energetic instruction to the attention of every active Legionnaire in the state. His frequent letters to the posts carry his slogan for the campaign, "Say It With Votes."

One of his letters, which carries this cry as salutation and conclusion, is partly as follows: "When flags waved back in 1917, Illinois answered the call to arms with a gusto. There was a hip-hurray everywhere. The atmosphere was charged with patriotism. We fairly lived it, breathed it, had it with our meals, slept with it. And while we marched away, the people who stood back of us at home said that nothing would be too good for us when we got back, if we did."

"Well, we're back, those of us who are alive, and the people of Illinois, thru the state legislature, are living up to their word. At the last session of the legislature a bill was passed allowing the bonus to be paid to those who served in the war."

"If you don't get out and vote for this proposition, the people will take it for granted that you don't want compensation, and won't get it. Each Legionnaire has got to bring in fifteen votes to carry the election. That's your job."

National Commander MacNider will present a blue ribbon bearing the words "Rock Island convention 1920" to the color and standard bearers from all posts at a ceremony the 25th. Colors standards, with bands, drum bugle corps, will be massed before the reviewing stand for ceremony immediately after parade.

LEAVES FOR U. OF I.
David Dawson, of Webster, will leave this morning for the University of Illinois where he plans to take a four year course in the school of Business Administration. He graduated from the high school last spring and for the past three months has been working in Chicago.

ARMOUR CONVERTED

Babson Issues a Remarkable Statement on the Capital and Labor Question by J. Ogden Armour

WELLESLEY HILLS, Mass., Sept. 16.—J. Ogden Armour has been looked upon as a great capitalist incapable of seeing the side of either the wage worker or the public. Today, however, he has outwitted his criticism by coming out frankly for both the organizing of wage workers and the protection of the public. Mr. Armour begins his discussion by saying that the problems of the employer and the wage worker is not primarily to divide profits but to assure them. "For certainly they must be made before they can be divided. Dividing them," says Mr. Armour "is a mighty easy job alongside of making them." In discussing the recent strikes Mr. Armour says, "strikes or lockouts merely show which factor for the moment is most powerful, and not in any sense determines what is right. It is the strongest side which wins and this is not necessarily the side which should." His complete statement as just issued at the recent conference on public relations at the Babson Institute is as follows:

"Efforts to take labor or capital out of the list of commodities subject to the law of supply and demand are responsible for what is generally called the struggle between capital and labor. In the struggle between employers and wage workers. Always in the past, a surplus of workers has meant lower wages. Those with labor to sell have said that capital was cracking the whip, while employers pointed to increased competition and lower selling prices as both justifying and compelling lower operating costs. "On the other hand, when workers are scarce, wages go up. Those with capital invested have maintained that the wage workers take advantage of the situation. The wage workers' reply is that higher living costs justify higher wages. Thus it will be seen that while there is not any question but that wages go up and down in accordance with the law of supply and demand, there are two different explanations for the phenomenon. Either is reasonable or unreasonable, according to one's own viewpoint.

Readjustment Brings Strife. "There are at this writing more than the usual evidences of the struggle between employers and wage workers. This is due to the fact that after a long period of increasing wages there came a turn in the tide which had been carrying wages and prices to higher and higher levels. With the end of the period of war inflation came on insisted demand for readjustment. Just what readjustment means depends largely upon who defines it. To employers it means a return to normal operating costs, etc., while to wage workers it means lower prices on the essential of life. "Inasmuch as about 90 per cent of the ultimate price of commodities in general represents the labor costs incident to production, manufacture, distribution, etc., it ought to be obvious that wages and prices are in the same boat and must float or sink together. Thus when markets slumped and prices fell, wages were started on the down trend and thereupon workers in many industries fell back upon the strike as a weapon against wage reductions.

Economic Laws Inevitable. "The law of supply and demand calls for a return to normalcy, and the wage workers, while aiming blows at employers, are really bucking up against inevitable natural laws. These laws permitted high wages for workers and high interest rates for capital during the war period. Since then these laws have forced the interest rate down, and they will not permit the retention of war time wages.

"It may be a hard pill for both capital and labor to swallow, but the fact remains that they are subject to the law of supply and demand and they cannot escape it. Regardless of outside interference, 'wage earner-employer' difficulties will always be settled in accordance with the requirements of natural laws and all the ills and hardships of the struggle between the two factions result from resistance of these laws.

"It seems to me that the time has come when we, as a nation, should take steps which will enable the natural laws to operate without the painful and damaging struggles which are now the rule, and which are not productive of permanent good to either employer or employee.

Panaceas Disregard Laws. "Panaceas for employer-wage worker ills have always been on the market but in practically all cases they have been designed to produce some effect other than that which would come from the normal working out of the law of supply and demand. They have sought to keep wages up while cutting prices, or to force wages down while maintaining price levels, or have otherwise disregarded the normal and natural relations between wages and prices. Therefore, these panaceas have not worked and never will work. The sooner it is recognized that natural laws will prevail, the sooner will we find the solution for our troubles. The proper solution must bring the same result that the normal working out of the law would bring, but must avoid the evils and ills and damages incident thereto.

Dividing the Profits. "The fight between employer and wage earner has been described as having to do with a division of the profits. If that were true, the problem would be much simpler than it really is. Division of the profits is merely a phase of the matter; the big problem is to make the profits in the first place. It is astounding how much ignorance there is relative to the profits of business. The lay mind assumes that the margin between the original cost and the ultimate selling price is profit. The part that operating costs and overhead expenses play in wiping out this margin gets scant consideration.

"When a business pay a dollar for raw material and sells the finished product for $2.00, the layman says there is a dollar profit, but as often as not such a margin between cost and price means a loss. It may cost considerable to turn the raw product into the finished article since the labor involved and the equipment used may be a very big expense. On top of that there will be storage charges and freight bills and sales costs. There are a dozen charges that enter in and conspire to wipe out the margin, and not the least of these is represented by the tax that the business pays.

"The sum total of all its operating and overhead charges may easily wipe out what appears to be a wide margin between raw product costs and finished article prices. Men work for a livelihood and capital works for interest, and there always will be room for difference of opinion as to what constitutes a good livelihood and a good interest, but there need be no question about this fact—neither men nor money will work without a return. The problem of wage earner and employer then, is not to divide profits but to assure profits, for certainly they must be made before they can be divided. Dividing them is a mighty easy job alongside of making them.

Reasonable Men Agree. "Everybody has a right to opinions as to the cure for industrial ills, and the business with which I am connected is now engaged in trying out a plan which holds forth great promise. It is not designed to bring about the millennium; neither does it promise to give the workers high wages and employers high profits. It is founded on knowledge that the business must prosper if either employer or employee is to prosper. With the two factors working together with mutual understanding and recognition of the problems confronting the industry, the results of the law of supply and demand can be attained without injury to either factor and with consent benefit to both.

"This is being accomplished with us by the workers organizing into what resembles political constituencies, they electing their representatives to minor and major conference boards. The minor boards consider matters of purely local and departmental interests, while the major boards broaden the scope of their interests up to the point where the general conference board sits in judgment on problems affecting the entire organization. The conference boards are made up of equal numbers of representatives of employees and of the management, and their decisions call for agreement between the two factions. The plan assumes that reasonable men who are acquainted with all the facts about a matter will reach an agreement when they place their feet under the same table and give honest consideration to the problem before them. On the outside chance that some situation may arise in which the two factions cannot agree after such honest and careful consideration, provision is made for arbitration, but it is not expected that this will be necessary.

Union Ideals All Right. "It takes a very narrow-minded person to believe that the announced names of unionism are other than right and just, but there is also the certainty that in practice the relations between unions and employers will be tests of strength. A strike or a lockout merely shows which factor is for the moment dominant, and in no sense determines what is right or what is best for the business—and when I say best for the business I mean best for those who are investing their labor as well as those who are investing their capital.

"We do not expect this plan to accomplish the impossible, but do believe that when reasonable men get together to discuss and consider mutual problems, a solution can be found which will obviate tests of strength, such as the strike and the lockout.

Public Rights Paramount. "Under existing conditions, 95 per cent of the people are made to suffer mentally, physically and financially, when 5 per cent engage in industrial dispute. Every one agrees that the whole public ought not to be made to suffer by reason of 'wage earner-employer' disputes. But as long as certain rights now recognized as inalienable continues to be so recognized, the public will remain the innocent bystander who gets the most of the bricks. Wage earners say they have a right to refuse work; employers claim, the same right. Wage workers say they have a right to fight for what is due them; employers make a similar claim. I appreciate the danger of advocating the abrogation of any rights, but it does seem that the public too has some rights, and that it's rights have precedence over the rights of any minor factions, be they workers or employers or stockholders.

Arbitration Should be Compulsory.

"I am a firm believer in the fact that men in the main are reasonable and that when they understand what is the requirement of economic law they will find a way to adjust themselves. But if it is too far to do so and if their failure is detrimental to public interest, then there ought to be means for forcing settlement through compulsory arbitration. I am, today, an advocate of compulsory arbitration as a means for ending 'employer-wage worker' disputes which cannot be ended by mutual agreement.

"I state to the Babson Institute that there should be a tribunal of such character that its integrity and fairness is beyond question. Upon that tribunal should rest responsibility for settling difficulties when direct negotiations fail. The tribunal should have ample powers to compel submission of disputes to it and to enforce its findings. Only in that way can the interests of the great majority be safeguarded. Strife between employers and wage workers, based on misunderstanding of economic laws, must be brought to an end."

WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES

Illinois Woman's College opens its 77th year Monday, September 18th; registration days, Monday and Tuesday; the first Chapel exercises on Wednesday, September 20th, at 9:00 o'clock. All friends of the college and every one interested in the education of our young people are cordially invited to be present.

Each year the college draws an increased number of students who come from other institutions for advanced classification. Last year there were twelve who entered and were classified among the upper three classes. This year the record shows that seventeen come from other institutions of learning, both colleges and universities; fifteen different schools being represented.

Professor Alida Alexander has returned from Manitou Beach, Michigan, where she has been spending the summer in study. She has brought back with her a number of specimens for use in the Biology Department. specimens that are very difficult to obtain from the Supply Houses.

A meeting of the faculty will be held Saturday evening to discuss the plans for registration. The advisers and the checkers will discuss any changes in registration plans that may be necessary. All members of the faculty are expected in Saturday, together with some of the advanced students, who are to act as checking clerks.

Miss Harriet Whitmer, assistant professor in the Biology Department, spent the summer at the University of Illinois and in Chicago doing work toward her doctor's degree.

Miss Sarita Jones spent the summer in one of the camps near Port Huron, Michigan. Miss Jones was one of the counselors at the camp with ten girls under her special care.

It has been decided to conduct a cafeteria for the benefit of students and faculty who live in the city. The increasing number of these has made it necessary to provide accommodations for them.

The swimming pool will be ready for the opening week of the school year, so that the classes in this may start at the same time as the other departments begin the year's work.

TO THE PEOPLE OF JACKSONVILLE.

The 77th year of Illinois Woman's college opens on Wednesday, September 20. Faculty and students are beginning to arrive. First chapel exercises will be held at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning. The enrollment is the largest in the history of the college. The coming of so large a number of young women to Jacksonville affords a great opportunity both for the college and the people of Jacksonville. The college bespeaks an interest on the part of all good people of the city in its work of character building and of preparing these young women for larger service.

GOOD RECORD AT BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH

Today will witness the close of the second year of the work of Rev. R. H. Hackley with Bethel A. M. E. church of this city. The Reverend gentleman and his estimable wife have been a power for good since they arrived in Jacksonville two years ago, October 7. The people were depressed and discouraged and the work all around was at a low ebb. The meetings were poorly attended and the spirits of the people of the town were down. Mr. Hackley took hold with a will and among other things called attention to the injunction of Paul to the Romans to owe no man anything but to love one another.

Rev. R. H. Hackley.

The church owed a mortgage of $700, and floating debt of $3,300, mostly to fifty creditors locally, for sums greater or less. Led by the worthy pastor, the people went to work with a will and today Bethel's debt is only the $700 mortgage. The property has been well cared for and all pertaining to the church has been managed on business principles. The total receipts of the church for the past two years amounted to $8,807.40, and the pastor and people wish to thank the business men of the city and all good friends who helped them.

Along with the temporal work that of the spiritual has not been neglected for the people had a heart to work in the field of the Lord. The general meetings of all kinds have been well attended; the different societies kept going in a fine way and the work of the church in general has prospered. The pastor has been loyally supported and sustained by his various officers and all the auxiliary societies so that the work has been a harmonious whole.

Mr. Hackley will go to conference at Quincy Tuesday and will have no need to be ashamed of his report.

The Jordan Blue Boy in Blue Devil Blue—the most beautiful sport car ever built in this country—will be shown for the first time at the Illinois State Fair. Don't fail to see it. ELLIOTT MOTOR CAR CO.

"I would willingly entertain all who wish to visit my grounds, yet the very nature of my work requires absolute freedom from interruption," he says.

OBITUARY OF J. W. FANNING

On April 14 in 1856 there came into the old home of Ephraim and Caroline Fanning, three miles east of Murrayville, bright twin boys. The one passed away in infancy. The other lived and grew into the splendid man in respect of whose memory we are here today. An older brother, James K. Fanning, a Civil War veteran, who passed on to that undiscovered country from whose bourne no traveler returns, an older sister Mrs. Emma Steele who died some years ago and two living sisters, Mrs. Margaret Wheeler of near Murrayville and Mrs. Alice Cooper of Marshall, Mo. constituted the Fanning family.

John William Fanning grew into manhood in the community of his birth and was married to Martha Sooy, who died June 15, 1911. To this union there were born four boys, Warren S. of Murrayville, Charles H. of Canton, Clyde M. of Baylis and Ira D. of Carrollton, and three girls, Mrs. Clara Vasconcellos of Chicago, Mrs. Lydia White and Mrs. Bertha Henry, both of Murrayville. All of the children are living. On April 11, 1918, Mr. Fanning was united in marriage with Mrs. Alice Bailey of White Hall, who survives him. "Captain" Fanning, as he was familiarly called by his friends, united with the M. E. church when he was 18 years of age, and it is a waste of words to those who knew him to say that he lived a consistent Christian life. He did not use his religion as a business proposition or as a matter of policy, but he lived it consistently seven days of the week, never for one minute losing his enthusiasm in the welfare of the church. He received his title of "Captain from being the leader of one of the teams in a revival conducted some years ago by Rev. J. M. Beadles in this church. Captain was one of those church members who was earnestly engaged in looking about for some duty, be it ever so humble, to perform.

He was a member of the Modern Woodmen of America, the Order of the Eastern Star and the Masonic Lodge, and was chaplain of that order at the time of his death. He had occupied various positions of honor and trust in his community and was both school trustee and church steward at the time of his passing.

Captain Fanning was just a good, square, honest, unassuming man. He regarded no effort as any trouble to accommodate a friend and neighbor. If a neighbor was sick Captain Fanning was there to see if he couldn't do something for them, and it has often been remarked by those who knew him that if all men were like Captain Fanning, law courts would have to go out of business. A lengthy obituary of "Cap" Fanning is unnecessary, because the best that can be said of him is just what everybody knows. At the end of 66 years, 4 months and 27 days he passed to his reward and left a vacancy in the hearts of those who knew him.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE NOTES
 Registration in all departments of Illinois College will take place on Monday and Tuesday, September 18 and 19. The first chapel exercise of the year will be held Wednesday morning, at 9:00 o'clock. President Rammekamp will, as usual, deliver a brief address to the incoming students and Mr. Lovejoy, the new vocal teacher of the Conservatory will sing a solo. All friends of the College are cordially invited to the first chapel.

The first faculty meeting of the year was held on Saturday afternoon.
 Many important matters were discussed, among them the problem of caring for the increase in student enrollment this year.

Professor R. O. Busey and family have moved into the house which they purchased last June on Prospect St.

Professor Isabel S. Smith spent part of the summer in Post Graduate study at the University of Chicago.
 Professor Smith has completed her work for her doctor's degree and the degree will be conferred by the University in the near future.

Workmen are still busy endeavoring to get the second story of Sturtevant Hall completed as rapidly as possible. It will take a few weeks before all of the work is finished.

Unusual interest is already being manifested by returning students in the various student organizations, especially in the College Band. J. Bart Johnson will, as last year, have charge of the band. He hopes to organize two bands—one the varsity band and the other a preliminary organization in which beginners will be trained for the varsity band. Students who register for instruction on band instruments in the Conservatory will of course be given an opportunity to train for the band.

Miss Rena Chaney, '21, has been appointed to a position in the Commercial Department of the High School at Waterville, Washington.

Miss Chaney graduated with very high honors from one of the large commercial schools in Seattle, Washington, last spring.

Of the large class graduated from the College last spring, sixteen go into the teaching field, eight will continue their studies, while others will take up farming, and ranching.

Of the sixteen teaching, Carlyle Antrobus will teach at Camp Point;
 Alice Bray at the Charleston High School; Byron Cully will coach and teach in the Flora High School; Harold Dolbow will be at New Berlin; William Fielding and Raymond Huck will teach at Metropolis; John Fierke and Erma Wolfe in the High School at Carrollton; Violet Murphy at Golden; Mabel Ruyle will teach in the Jacksonville High School; Victor Sheppard at Stanley, Wisconsin;
 Helen Stevens at Good Hope; Janice Taylor at Galva; Marie Thomas at Athens; Ginevra Thomas at West Lafayette, Ind.; Katherine Wenger at Highland, Illinois; Glen Weaver at Roanoke, and Velma Wray will also teach in an Illinois High school.

Francis Thurmon and Felix Farrell will attend Harvard. Helen Jones, Mary Alice Pierce, Elmer O. Sellers and John R. Wilson will go to the University of Illinois, and Ed Thies will attend Washington University Medical school. Richard Hobson will go to Northwestern University Medical school. William Calhoun and Horatio Green will take up farming and Dale Giberson is on a ranch in Limon, Colorado. Eldon Karr plans to go into the lumber business with his father, Frances Strawn and Sylvia Taylor will go into library work. Miss Strawn at the College and Sylvia Taylor at the Jacksonville public library. Gladys Knapp will spend the winter in Jacksonville. Mack Peters will be at Bluff Springs, Illinois.

Conservatory Notes
 The Conservatory will open its doors for the year 1922-23 on Wednesday next, September 20th. Registration days fall on Monday and Tuesday, September 18th and 19th.

All of the members of the faculty are in Jacksonville, excepting Mrs.
 Fay Foreman, who will return from her home in Kane, Ill., next Tuesday. There are a few changes in the personnel of the faculty, but or the most part it remains the same as last year. It is with keen regret that the Conservatory loses the services of Mrs. Helen Ayers Bullard, who goes to Chicago to be with her son and daughter there, Mr. Edward Bullard, who is practicing law, and Miss Virginia, who is pursuing her musical studies.

Two new members of the faculty are Mr. Arnold Lovejoy, baritone, who succeeds Mr. Clayton C. Quast as head of the voice department, and Miss Florence Schweke, who will teach Organ and Piano. Mr. Lovejoy will succeed Mr. Quast also as a member of the choir of State Street church, and Miss Schweke will play the organ at that church on Sunday, September 17th.

At the opening chapel exercises next Wednesday, September 20th Mr.
 Lovejoy will sing, accompanied by Mr. Munger at the piano and Miss Schweke at the organ.

On Thursday last, at a luncheon given by the Kiwanis club at the Peacock Inn, Mr. Lovejoy sang some solos with violin obligato by Mr.
 Kritch and piano accompaniment by Mr. Munger. A short program was given by the same three members of the faculty at the high school on Friday morning and at the David Prince school on Friday afternoon.

Both Quality and Price Are Combined in These Special Mattresses

Cheap cotton and combination mattresses don't pay. They settle down, sag and become lumpy and uncomfortable. This mattress is of cotton felt, in layers, it cannot lump and an occasional sun bath keeps it soft and comfortable. It is the same quality that you are asked $15 for today. Price $11.50.

We are making a special offer on only six of these layer felt mattresses at a saving to you of over $3. Remember there are only six to sell. See them early and compare with regular $15 goods. You get a good mattress at the price of a cheap one. Cotton is advancing in price and mattresses are also.

GENERAL REACTION
IN STOCK MARKET
By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Lack of effective buying power and abandonment of bull operations by speculative interests combined with week-end profit-taking and extensive short selling caused a general reaction in the stock market today. The decline in some of the recent strong issues confirmed the belief of bear interests that they had been pushed too far out of line at the selling proceeded in an orderly manner.

Developments in the Near East were watched closely by financial interests but had little visible effect either on stock or bond prices or the foreign exchanges.

Equipment issues plainly showed the effects of realizing sales.
Pullman declining 1/3; Baldwin a point and others fractionally.

Mexican Petroleum moved to higher ground but a reactionary tendency was noted among some of the other oils.

Total sales were 446,000 shares
The foreign exchanges continued to lose ground, the market

SHANKEN'S Inaugural Sale

Begins Tomorrow - Ends Saturday
Ushering In the Fall Season of 1922

Right at the commencement of the Fall Season when it is the desire of every feminine heart to be one of the first to don the new styles dictated by Dame Fashion, we are going to make every such desire a realization through the medium of an Inaugural Sale.

Before you read any farther permit us to recall to your mind the fact that this store carries over no goods from season to season; that it is the unalterable policy of this store to show the new articles for women's wear while they are new so that the women of this trade territory may feel and know that they are wearing as up-to-the-minute styles as are their sisters in the great cities; that prices are kept down while quality remains high.

The summer has been long and hot but with the advent of the cooler days comes the desire for a suit, dress, coat, hat. Some always buy at the beginning of a season while others wait in order to avail themselves of a lower price later on.

By taking advantage of this Inaugural Sale every woman will have the benefit of usual End-of-Season prices and the privilege of being among the first to enjoy wearing the delightful new garments now being shown.

Another feature of this store is Individuality. A buyer here need not fear that she will see several other dresses or suits or coats or hats like the one she has just purchased.

Almost all of our friends and patrons are now acquainted with our second floor Junior department and we just want to assure them that this sale extends too to every item there.

In our yardage Department will be found the beautiful new materials for the children's fall dresses, house dresses, as well as the magnificent silks and silken fabrics for home sewing. This department has been greatly enlarged in order to better accommodate our rapidly growing patronage.
